[NOTE: The United States Patent and Trademark Office may require additional information if there is a question as to whether either the abandonment or the delay in filing a petition under 37 CFR 1.137(b) was unintentional (MPEP 711.03(c), subsections (III)(C) and (D)).] Please see Attached Statement of

WARNING:

Petitioner/applicant is cautioned to avoid submitting personal information in documents filed in a patent application that may contribute to identity theft. Personal information such as social security numbers, bank account numbers, or credit card numbers (other than a check or credit card authorization form PTO-2038 submitted for payment purposes) is never required by the USPTO to support a petition or an application. If this type of personal information is included in documents submitted to the USPTO, petitioners/applicants should consider redacting such personal information from the documents before submitting them to the USPTO. Petitioner/applicant is advised that the record of a patent application is available to the public after publication of the application (unless a non-publication request in compliance with 37 CFR 1.213(a) is made in the application) or issuance of a patent. Furthermore, the record from an abandoned application may also be available to the public if the application is referenced in a published application or an issued patent (see 37 CFR 1.14). Checks and credit card authorization forms PTO-2038 submitted for payment purposes are not retained in the application file and therefore are not publicly available.

STATEMENT (ITEM 4) ACCOMPANYING PETITION FOR REVIVAL FOR
PATENT APPLICATION ABANDONED UNINTENTIONALLY 37CFR1.137(b)

I, Barbara Rogers, am an administrator in the IPLaw Department of IBM Corporation, 11400 Burnet Rd., Austin TX.
78758.

In late April, 2008, our Administrative Manager Maryann
Luisi had a task survey done on the workload of Robin Zelent, a former Administrator in our IPLaw Department, who left our IPLaw Department in mid 2007 after a long illness with limited and sporadic work attendance. The survey uncovered a Notification of a Non-Compliant Appeal Brief dated December 14, 2006, the receipt of which was recorded in the IPLaw Department but nothing further was done.

10/042,107

Upon this discovery, I advised J. B. Kraft, the outside our Department Attorney, responsible for this Application of the above facts, on April 22, 2008, and I proceeded to look into the surrounding facts so that we could make the present Petition to Revive. Shortly thereafter, we received the Notice of Abandonment dated May 1, 2008.

Supplementing the above facts, on information and belief, I found the following. All letters and communications addressed to the IPLaw Department, in Austin Texas are routinely entered to the IBM IPLaw records database and assigned to the appropriate administrators for attorneys responsible for handling the particular communication which in this case was J. B. Kraft.

Because of Ms Zelent's sporadic attendance, it is unclear from our records whether the Notification of the Non-Compliant Brief was handled by Ms Zelent or one of the other administrators in the IPLaw Department who were periodically filling for Ms Zelent. However, what is clear from our files is that the Notification was never sent to J. B. Kraft, Attorney. I have been in contact with Mr. Kraft, and been advised by him that he never received the Notification as will be set forth in his accompanying Statement.

PATENT APPLICATION ABANDONED UNINTENTIONALLY 37CFR1.137(b)

I, J. B. Kraft, Reg. No. 19,226, 710 Colorado, #5C, Austin, TX. 78701, am the Outside of the IPLaw Department Attorney responsible for the filing and prosecution of the present Patent Application,

I routinely handle the filing and prosecution of many patent applications for the IBM IPLaw Department, Austin Texas.

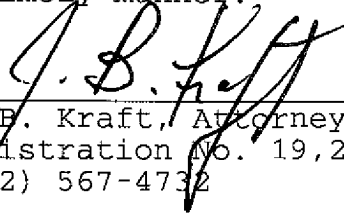

With respect to communications from the Unites States Patent Office received at the IBM IPLaw Department, Austin Texas, as described in the accompanying Statement of Ms Barbara Rogers, such communications are recorded in the IBM IPLaw Department, and then forwarded to me. I then record such communications, and set up the appropriate dates for timely response in my calendar.

My files and records indicate that I never received the Notification of Non-Compliant Appeal Brief dated 12/14/2006.

Upon discovery of our failure to respond, we ascertained the facts herein, and prepared this Petition in a timely manner.
